

OVER 20 ACADEMIC PROGRAMS AVAILABLE IN THE:

School of Arts, Science & Design, School of Business & Management
The Roger A. Saunders School of Hotel & Restaurant Management

Newbury College is a small independent college, situated in the Brookline district of Boston. Newbury offers a career-focused education, grounded in the liberal arts, within a diverse and dynamic learning community.

AT A GLANCE

900 students

34 full-time faculty and 77 part-time faculty

350 of students live on campus

Average class size of 18 students

All students complete an internship

Newbury College has been a leader in career focused education for almost 50 years. It prepares students to be professionally competent, ethically aware and prepared for lifelong learning.

It is a small and welcoming college, in a beautiful neighbourhood. Outside of class, students are encouraged to take part in activities and athletic programs to make the most of their learning experience. There are over 900 students from over 24 U.S. states and territories; and 12 international countries, making Newbury College a diverse and welcoming student community.

LOCATION

The college is located in Brookline, one of Boston's safest neighbourhoods. It is just 3 miles from the center of Boston and close to public transport, making it easy to get around.

ACCOMMODATION

Newbury has seven residence halls, providing student accommodation both on-campus and in the nearby neighbourhood. Each one has resident staff to help you settle into college life.

FACILITIES & STUDENT LIFE

- Dining hall & cafe
- Student center
- Wide range of student clubs and organizations, including an International Student Organization
- Counseling and health education center